WILL SUE THE STATE.

Holders of San Francisco Bonds Want Mortgage Sale of Steamer Vanguard Their Interest.

San Francisco, May 11.—Some of the holders of Montgomery avenue bonds are proposing bringing suit against the state for the principal and interest remaining unpaid. It has been decided repeatedly that the city is not liable. According to the federal constitution, a state can not be sued without its consent. By a law passed in 1903 California has given formal consent to have itself sued in matters involving a violation of contract or where negligence is shown. It is under this law the bondholders are

There were $1,500,000 of these bonds issued in 1875, bearing 6 per cent per annum. They matured last year and the unpaid interest amounts to $990,000. Holders of $847,000 are interested in the proposed suit. Many of these securities are held in London and Paris.

FORESTATION OF EUROPE. Forests are very unequally divided over the European continent In England and Ireland they cover but 4 per cent of the total surface; in Denmark 6 per cent; in Holland 7 per cent; in Spain 13 per cent; in Italy 14 per cent; in Belgium 17 per cent; in France 18 per cent; in Switzerland 20 per cent; in Norway 21 per cent; in Germany 23 per cent; in Austria 30 per cent; in Russia 32 per cent, and in Sweden 40 per cent. Great Britain, therefore, has the least extent of forest land in Europe, and Sweden has the largest.

Most European nations do not produce enough wood for their domestic consumption. Great Brit of $100,000,000, Germany $14, 000,000; Belgium, $14,00,000 Spain and Italy $6,000,000; France imports timber to the value of $28, same amount to $8,000,000.

The only European countries that produce all the lumber that they consume are Austria, Sweden Norway and Russia. These coun tries are richer in forests than Canada or the United States. For the last 20 years the demand for lumber for manufacturing purpose steadily increased, whereas wood for fuel is growing constantly less in demand.

Year by year more wood is being employed for conversion into eellulose. Norway, which in 1875 produced 8,500 tons for cellulose, manufactured from the year 1898 and onward no less than 315,000
